

LMS Band Note

April 4, 2022

ANNOUNCEMENTS:

1. Jazz Band – Jazz Band will rehearse on Tuesday and Wednesday this week.
2. MANU Jazz Festival – Our Jazz Band will be traveling to Mid-America Nazarene University on Thursday, April 7th for a performance and clinic. Our performance time is 8am and is open to the public. Please see the attached itinerary for those students who are participating.
3. Q4 Objectives – Students received their final objective playing assessments of the year this week. The first attempt is due on Friday, April 8th. We will have a day in class this week for students to attempt their first objective in person.
4. Homework and State Testing – With state testing coming up, we will be mindful of adding to our student's workload during testing weeks. These tests are important and we want our students to be able to do their best. We encourage them to use their music practice as a time to decompress and have fun after testing days!
5. Class work: We have several students who are not turning in work for class. If your student has a missing assignment for band and they say they have turned it in, please have them show you the completed work on google classroom. Many times, they are turning in the assignment with no work attached.
6. 2022-2023 Beginning Band Meeting: This was originally planned for Thursday, April 7th but due to extenuating circumstances it will need to be moved. I will get a new date out for this soon. If you know someone who will have a beginning band student next year, please help me get the word out.
